They tell us:

One of Beaulieu's best-loved events, Spring Autojumble, will be returning on 14th and 15th May, taking its rightful place in the packed events calendar after a two-year absence.

Following in the tyre tracks of International Autojumble, which successfully returned to the Beaulieu parkland in 2021, the show will combine colourful car displays and hundreds of bargain-filled stands, for a busy motoring-themed weekend that everyone will enjoy.

Rare examples of the lilac-painted Morris Minor Million will be on show in Moggyfest, a packed display of Morris Minors and contemporary classics brought together by the Dorset branch of the Morris Minor Owners' Club.

Look out for a display from the Saab Enthusiasts Club, featuring a line-up of 60 Saabs of all ages in honour of all Saabs imported into the UK from 1960 until 2012. Saab always had an enviable reputation for building innovative and class-leading cars, so look out for eye-catching classics in the line-up.

While the Austin A30 & A35 Owners' Club will be displaying a fine collection of Austin A30s and A35s, with these charming 'baby Austins' reminiscent of a different era, when motoring in Britain was a slower, gentler affair.

Looking to buy your own classic or seeking a new project? On both days of the show, a range of classics will be on sale in Automart and Dealmart that will be sure to have you reaching for your wallet.

Fans of the nation's favourite 4X4 won't want to miss Land Rover Rummage. Taking place on the Sunday of the show, this trading corner of Spring Autojumble is dedicated to Land Rover spare parts, all gathered in one convenient area. Look out for mechanical spares, body panels, wheels, service items, accessories, and perhaps even complete project
