2024 is shaping up to be a great year for Spring Autojumble, with top car club displays and hundreds of stands making the show an unmissable highlight of the events calendar. No matter if you are searching for elusive spares for your treasured motor, looking to browse vehicles for sale, or just want to enjoy a great motoring-themed weekend at the home of the National Motor Museum, this is the event for you.

Displaying their cars at the show for the first time, the MX-5 Owners Club will be celebrating the 35th anniversary of the legendary Mazda MX-5, as the Solent Area group unites with other branches of the club to bring along a selection of these hugely popular sports cars for visitors to admire.

The Dorset Branch of the Morris Minor Owners Club will be returning with MoggyFest, with up to 200 Morris Minors and contemporary classics parking up in the showground. This year's colourful display will pay tribute to the iconic Traveller estate and van/pick-up variants of the Minor.

Also attending will be show favourites the Morgan Sports Car Club, showcasing a shining selection of its members' vehicles.

Looking to buy your dream car? Classic, modern, or anything in between, Automart is the place to find all manner of motors on sale. Find the one that takes your fancy, take a closer look, talk to the vendor and work out a deal!

Land Rover Rummage on Sunday 19th May is always an unmissable opportunity for fans of the iconic 4X4, with a corner of the Spring Autojumble fields dedicated solely to Land Rover spare parts, accessories and even complete project vehicles for sale.

Another Sunday highlight, Trunk Traders is ideal for anyone looking to sell off their surplus motoring paraphernalia. Whether you want to find a new home for tools that have been cluttering up the garage, spares left over from a car you used to own, or even motoring books and automobilia unearthed by a spring clean, sell them to eager buyers from your car boot at the show. Visit springautojumble.co.uk to find out more.
